

Press Release:

NetherMind: Elegy

The NetherMind artist collective and St. Anne's Anglican Church present a new exhibition of site-specific installations, entitled Elegy, from October 28 until November 13. Elegy mourns the destruction of the environment by anthropogenic climate change. In this exhibition, artists will create meditations on environmental destruction and ecological grief through sculptural, photographic, and video installations. It will be accompanied by guided tours for school groups and free events.

Collective members John Dickson, Catherine Heard, Greg Hefford, Reinhard Reitzenstein, Lyla Rye, and Max Streicher will be joined by guest artists, Ed Pien, and Kendra Yee

St. Anne's Anglican Church
270 Gladstone Ave., Toronto
October 29 – November 13, 2022
Friday – Sunday, 1pm - 6pm

Opening Reception: Friday, October 28, 6 - 9pm
ASL translation provided

Conversations:

Wednesday, November 2, 7pm
Writer Matthew Brower in conversation with NetherMind artists
ASL translation provided

Wednesday, November 9, 7pm
Writer Matthew Brower in conversation with scientist Leesa Fawcett - Ecological Implications of Grief
ASL translation provided

Links:

NetherMind Collective History: www.nethermind.ca

St. Anne's Anglican Church History: www.saintanne.ca

Questions?

For school tours or more information contact: lylarye@icloud.com

NetherMind would like to acknowledge the support of:

